It is a Man's War— But the Men Are Boys

CHINH TAMS, Viet Nam — The average age of the combat GI in many units here is 18½. And what a man he is!

A pink-cheeked, tousled-haired, tight-muscled fellow who, under normal circumstances, would be considered by society as half-man, half-boy, not yet dry behind the ears, a pain in the unemployment chart.

But here and now, he is the beardless hope of free man.

He is for the most part unmarried and without material possessions except for possibly an old car at home and a transistor radio here.

He listens to rock and roll — and 105mm howitzers.

He just got out of high school within the past year, received so-so grades, played a little football, and had a girl who broke up with him when he went overseas or who swears she is still faithful although he is half the world away.

He has learned to like beer by now because it is cold and because it is "the thing to do." He smokes because he gets free cigarettes in his C ration package and it is also the thing to do. He is a Private First Class.

A one-year military veteran with one more to go. His eyes are clear but his future is not.

He never cared much for work, preferred waxing his own car to washing his father's, but he is now 10 or 20 pounds lighter than before because he is working or fighting from dawn to dark, often longer.

He still has trouble spelling, and writing letters home is a painful process. But he can break down a rifle in 30 seconds and put it back together again in 29. He can describe the nomenclature of a fragmentation grenade, explain how a machine gun operates and, of course, utilize either if the need arises.

He can also dig foxholes, apply professional first aid to a wounded companion, march until he is told to stop or stop until he is told to march.

He obeys now, without hesitation. But he is not broken.

He has seen more suffering than he should have in his short life. He has stood among hills of bodies and he has helped to construct those hills.

He has wept in private and in public, and he has not been ashamed either place, because his pals have fallen in battle and he has come close to joining them.

And he has become self-sufficient; he has two pairs of fatigues, washes one and wears the other. He sometimes forgets to brush his teeth, but not his rifle. He keeps his socks dry and his canteen full. He can cook his own meals, fix his own hurts and mend his own rips—material or mental.

He will share his water with you if you thirst, break his rations in half if you hunger, split his ammunition if you are fighting for your life.

He can do the work of two civilians, draw half the pay of one and find ironic humor in it all. He has learned to use his hands as a weapon and his weapon as his hands. He can save a life, or most assuredly take one.

Eighteen-and-a-half years old. What a man he is.

Blastoff Set Sunday

Gemini 6 Launch Moved Up One Day

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—The Gemini 6 launch crew received orders today to prepare for a Sunday morning firing and completion of the first U.S. space rendezvous one day ahead of schedule.

Preparations at Cape Kennedy were 24 hours ahead for the blastoff of a Titan 2 rocket which will propel Gemini 6 in pursuit of astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell in the Gemini 7 spaceship.

Borman and Lovell will prepare for the space chase today by maneuvering their craft into a circular orbit 185 miles above the earth. This is desired position for the rendezvous.

The two spacecraft will meet in the sky, if there are no hitches, and complete a space first by flying in formation.

Other than a few sneezes by Borman, there were no problems aboard the Gemini 7, which was hurtling along toward a 14-day endurance race.

Gemini 7 entered its 72nd orbit at 7:58 a.m. (EST).

British Bid For Peace In Viet Nam

LONDON (AP) — Britain today proposed a 12-nation appeal to Communist North Viet Nam to quit fighting and negotiate a peace.

The British move was contained in a draft message sent to the Soviet government.

It called upon the Russians to join in signing and circulating the message among the nine countries which attended the 1964 Indochinese peace parley and the Indian, Canadian and Polish governments, which form the Viet Nam Control Commission.

In the message, the British government accused the North Vietnamese of stepping up intervention in South Viet Nam.

The British charged, too, that North Viet Nam also has lately been speed and increasing the flow of military equipment and men southward to aid the Communist-led Viet Cong forces.

A third accusation in the British message said North Vietnamese forces, "on a constantly expanding scale, are violating the neutrality and territorial integrity of Laos."

Sedalia Film Attracts 600 For Showing

A 25-minute color film, "Sedalia — The American City," had its first public showing Wednesday afternoon at the Fox Theater before some 600 persons.

Produced by the Chamber of Commerce to be used as an aid in attracting new industry, the film will now be made available for showings before local organizations and for mailing to industrial prospects. Five prints of the film are to be made with two being retained by the chamber here and the other three going to the Missouri-Pacific Railroad's industrial development department, the Missouri Division of Commerce and Industrial Development and Sedalia's new Industrial Development Department.

New Animal Shelter Planned By City

The city of Sedalia began today for the construction of a new animal shelter to replace the often-criticized dog pound now located on East Hogan just north of North Osage Avenue.

Bids are to be received until Dec. 20 on the new shelter, slated to be of haydite block construction, 50 x 26 feet in size. The new animal shelter is to be located east of the city's present West Sewage Plant.

Included in the new facility would be cages with opening allowing confined animals access to outside pens.

Sedalia's present pound is in general rundown shape and in recent years its condition has been sharply protested by the Humane Society's headquarters of St. Louis.

Fight for Prestige

King-Sized Battle Rages At Tam Ky

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A search-and-destroy mission by South Vietnamese troops in the coastal rice paddies of central Viet Nam exploded into a swirling, king-sized battle with a hard-core Viet Cong regiment today.

Heavy casualties on both sides bloodied the lowlands as U.S. artillery and jets joined the savage fight to dislodge the strong Communist force from positions halfway between the two big U.S. Marine beachheads in South Viet Nam.

All reports indicated the hit-run Viet Cong had turned the fight into a prestige battle for ground they have zealously defended for years.

A U.S. Army spokesman said of the Communists:

"They are in fact fighting for their homes. These are real hard core."

The action developed 15 miles north of the seaside town of Tam Ky, in the same area where the Viet Cong nearly annihilated a crack government ranger battalion Wednesday.

Two U.S. advisers were killed and four others are missing, a spokesman said.

Although the battleground lies halfway between the Marine bases at Chu Lai, 330 miles northeast of Saigon, and Da Nang, 50 miles farther north, U.S. ground forces so far were kept out of the fighting.

The skies cleared, and U.S. aerial might was turned loose again on Viet Cong targets. American airmen dropped 206 tons of bombs, including 3,000-pounders, on the Communist North and flew 397 sorties against suspected Viet Cong hideouts in the South.

A C130 Hercules transport crashed and burned taking off from Chu Lai air field Wednesday night, killing one American and injuring three Vietnamese military passengers. Five crewmen and another passenger escaped injury. Spokesmen said the cause of the crash was unknown.

On the ground, small Viet Cong units made a number of probes near Saigon. They fired on five Vietnamese outposts from 10 to 15 miles southwest of the capital, inflicting moderate casualties, and briefly captured Tam Phuoc hamlet 20 miles east of the city. A company

Revise Plan On Recreation Area Project

A revised approach toward efforts to construct a new reservoir and recreation area south of Sedalia on Springfork Creek was announced Thursday by Melvin Jones, Sedalia businessman, who has been heading a committee on the project.

Jones told The Democrat-Capital his investigation and discussions with state officials have revealed the county recreational area approach previously planned would sharply limit city use of water in the proposed 900-acre reservoir to "emergency or critical" conditions. This had not been the understanding of boosters of the project previously.

Jones pointed out, and it had been believed the lake would be utilized as a "supplementary or auxiliary" water supply for the city of Sedalia.

The planned change of course, Jones said, will be to proceed under a proposal for a multiple purpose area — which would allow use of the reservoir both for recreation and additional water supply. Under this change, however, the city of Sedalia will be the sub-division of St. Louis.

Indicted In Kansas For Tax Violations

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Harry Britt Brown, Jr., an official of the Wichita Eagle & Beacon, and two former employees were indicted today by a federal grand jury on charges of violating income tax laws.

Brown is vice president and secretary of the Wichita newspaper organization.

Also indicted were Royce C. Schmert, Wichita, and Jack Speer, Prairie Village, Kan.

Each was indicted on charges covering the years 1959, 1960 and 1961. Each was accused of three counts of tax evasion and three counts of filing false returns.

Schmert, 69, was a credit manager of the advertising department and Speer, 46, was a supervisor of the advertising, bookkeeping and collections.

Newell A. George, U. S. district attorney, said the charges stemmed from an alleged arrangement between the three in which they accepted merchandise in lieu of cash for advertising published in the newspapers.

Kremlin In Shuffle Of Top Red Leaders

Podgorny to Succeed Mikoyan As President

MOSCOW (AP) — A major shuffle in the Soviet high command today assigned Alexander N. Shelepin to an influential job at the top level of the Communist party and boosted Nikolai V. Podgorny into the presidency.

Podgorny, 62, who has been No. 2 man in the party as one of its secretaries and a member of the ruling party presidium, replaces Anastas I. Mikoyan, a member of the top Soviet command for 40 years.

At 70, Mikoyan said an operation three years ago had made it difficult for him to fulfill the demands of the presidency. This is a largely ceremonial post.

Shelepin, 47, was relieved as deputy premier and head of the committee for party and state control. Communist sources indicated he would take the No. 2 post formerly held by Podgorny. This job is second to Leonid I. Brezhnev, chief of the secretariat, the most powerful unit in the Soviet Union.

There was no change in the two top posts — Brezhnev as first secretary of the party and Alexei N. Kosygin as premier. They suggested the changes, and they were approved by the Supreme Soviet, the parliament.

Both Podgorny and Mikoyan remained members of the 12-man party presidium which makes the policy executed by the party secretariat.

Mikoyan also was elected, following his resignation from the presidency, to a Supreme Soviet role corresponding to one of many parliamentary vice presidents.

Mikoyan, who marked his 70th birthday Nov. 25, was the last of the Old Bolsheviks in the upper reaches of the Soviet party and government. He was a revolutionary in the Caucasus as a young man at the time of the great Russian upheavals toward the end of World War I.

A nimble-witted Armenian with a genius for staying out of trouble, Mikoyan survived Stalin purges and innumerable shake-ups. He came close to the top of the hierarchy but never seemed to aspire for the top post. Evidently he played a significant part last year in the overthrow of Nikita S. Khrushchev.

In Ten Year Period

88 Per Cent Hike In Property Tax

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — You paid $41.15 more property tax last year in Missouri, on the average, than 10 years ago, according to a study released today by the Missouri Public Expenditure Survey.

The survey, a taxpayers' "watchdog" organization, showed average per capita collections last year were $89.96, compared with $46.81 a decade ago. That's an 88 per cent increase.

The property tax produced $387.8 million last year—or half a million more than the combined yields of the state taxes on sales, income, liquor, cigarettes, inheritance, motor vehicles and drivers' licenses.

The average rate last year increased to $4.58 per assessed valuation, up 25 cents over the previous year and a gain of $1.28 in the last 10 years.

The state got only $5.9 million of the property tax revenue last year with the rest going to local units. The state rate now is 6 cents per $100. The 1965 Legislature cut a penny off the state levy because some of the money was earmarked for a debt that had been retired.

Public schools got the most—62 per cent or $240 million last year.

Among high school districts, Hickman Mills in Jackson County had the highest rate at $4.71.

R-II Gorin in Scotland County was second at $4.50 and Liberty in Clay County third at $4.49.

Among cities over 3,000 population, St. Joseph topped the list at $3.03. The lowest under 3,000 was Callao in Macon County at $2.45.

But the rising trend was reversed in Boone County, where a revaluation of real estate assessments enabled 22 of the 27 total taxing units to cut their rates. In Columbia the rate for all taxing units dropped from $6.17 to $5.17.

The survey suggested several ways to halt the property tax escalation, such as:

Tighter budgeting of all local government units. It said vigilant citizens could help in this process.

Further mergers of school districts for more efficiency and economy.

Abolition of the township form of government in the 24 counties which still have 344 townships. "Not only are these small units anachronistic," the survey said, "they are a roadblock to effective local government."

Legislation to encourage the merging of adjoining municipalities in St. Louis County and other fast growing urban areas.

More contracting of mutual services by local governments.

Out-going President

Ann Landers Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Some of you write to you asking for advice should look in the mirror.

I'm a bachelor, 38, college educated, successful in business and I enjoy life. I have a city apartment, a country home, a new car, a boat and two or three dates a week. And I think something about babes.

I've made a list of negative attributes—let's call them The Dirty Dozen. Print them if you think they will help.

I can't stand women who:

1. Smoke on the street.
2. Smoke while driving a car.
3. Drink too much and get loud and sloppy.

4. Wear stretch pants and shoes that don't hide the foot strap.

5. Forget to shave their legs.

6. Wear three-story hair-dos and spray them with cement.

7. Paint themselves up like for Halloween.

8. Make up their faces and forget they have necks.

9. Wear high heels with slacks and shorts.

10. Chew gum with their mouths open.

11. Neglect their nails.

12. Wear girdles that make them look like ironing boards from the rear. — CHICAGO BACHELOR.

Nixon Doubts Wisdom Of Bomber Cuts

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon expressed doubts Wednesday night of the wisdom in the cutback of the nation's long range bomber force.

"This is no time for us to take any risks that reduce our air superiority," he said at a fund-raising dinner sponsored by St. Clair County Republicans.

He said earlier in press conference that the armed services committees of the House and Senate should take a close look at the cutback announced Wednesday by Sec. of Defense Robert McNamara.

He said the reported slowdown in the development of an anti-missile missile "may be like playing Russian roulette with our security."

Nixon favored stepping up air and sea attacks on North Viet Nam, short of nuclear weapons.

The way to shorten the Viet Nam war is to convince the Viet Cong they can not win, not by convincing them we want peace, he said.

"We want to end it without laying the groundwork for another war," he said.

SHEFFIELD, England (AP)—The Beatles' George Harrison is asking for public help in getting back his "golden" record of one of their hits, "A Hard Day's Night."

He said he gave the record to a girl friend, Patti Boyd, and it was stolen from her London apartment.

"The disc is not actually worth much, but there is a great deal of sentimental value," Harrison said.

Administration Inflationary Controls Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Use of coercion by the administration, without legislative sanction, in an effort to stem what they called "increasing inflation" was charged Wednesday by the six Republican members of the Senate-House Economic Committee.

The Republicans included Reps. Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri and Robert F. Ellsworth of Kansas. Others were Sens. Jacob K. Javits of New York, Jack Miller of Iowa and Len B. Jordan of Idaho; and Rep. William B. Widner of New Jersey.

They said the administration was resisting use of "tested fiscal and monetary policies, and instead has chosen to try to control inflation resulting from its excessively expansionary policies through tactics and economic pressures which have no legislative sanction."

Cited as an example was the administration's use of aluminum stockpiles "as a punitive economic weapon" to block a price increase.

Two US Planes Explode In Thailand

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Two U.S. Air Force planes exploded in Thailand Wednesday and one pilot was killed, a U.S. official said today.

The American pilot died when his Skyraider blew up while landing at Nakhon Phanom, about 375 miles northeast of Bangkok near the Laotian border, the official said.

In the other accident, a U.S. pilot ejected from his Thunderchief jet fighter-bomber when it exploded near Khoat, about 150 miles northeast of Bangkok, the official added.

Officials said both incidents were under investigation.

Navy Prison Headed For Extinction

PORTRSMOUTH, N.H. (AP)—The U.S. Navy's only prison, officially named the Naval Disciplinary Command, was among the military facilities earmarked for extinction Wednesday by Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

Its 500-600 prisoners are to be sent to Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., and the prison perched impotently on the tip of Seavey's Island will be closed. Its buildings are to be declared excess by January, 1969.

In 1945, the plant overflowed with 3,088 prisoners. Captured

German submarine sailors were processed through the prison.

The site of the prison was once Fort Sullivan, which guarded the harbor in the days of the American Revolution.

The present plant, opened in 1908, was developed into maximum security facility to house prisoners convicted of murder, rape, manslaughter and other major crimes.

Seek Labor Support In Restraints

JOHNSON CITY Tex. (AP) — President Johnson asks organized labor today to help maintain a stable economy under the government's guidelines for wage-price restraints.

Johnson agreed to speak by telephone late in the day to the AFL-CIO's biennial convention in San Francisco.

A week ago, the President voiced an appeal for voluntary economic stability in a telephone speech to members of the Business Council meeting in Washington.

Mounting spending for the war in Viet Nam has caused concern in some quarters about possible inflation.

Johnson told the business leaders he expects record prosperity without inflation in 1966. But he called for wage-price restraint.

The President is nearing the end of a recuperative stay at his ranch home 65 miles west of White House press headquarters here. Press secretary Bill D. Moyers said Johnson probably would fly back to Washington Sunday night.

Johnson will meet there next Tuesday and Wednesday with President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan. And he may remain in the capital for later conferences with Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Great Britain and Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman and about a dozen other top officials will meet at the ranch Friday for budget conferences with Johnson. Among the visitors will be Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, originally scheduled to see the President Saturday.

Melody Seems To Scatter Blackbirds

DEXTER, Mo. (AP) — Dexter residents are singing "Bye Bye Blackbird" these days to the accompaniment of a siren and flashing lights.

The community song was inspired after the town stumbled upon a simple melody that appears to scatter millions of unwelcome Blackbirds that have descended on the outskirts of this Bootheel town for the past 15 winters.

Local and state officials had considered poison, dynamite, water sprays and roost-burning in an attempt to rid themselves of the disease spreading pests, who also eat the food of livestock.

But all their ideas turned out to be flat notes until Fire Chief Leslie McMunn noticed that flashing red lights and sirens of Dexter's emergency vehicles got the birds moving.

The continued duet of light and noise has moved the birds to a wooded area about one mile farther west.

"At least they're moving," McMunn said.

Now the City Council must decide whether to install permanent flashing lights or continue use of the vehicles.

Approve Fund For Area Water Pollution Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service Wednesday approved a $4 million long-range project designed to attack water pollution problems in the Missouri-Red River basins.

Headquarters for the project will be in Kansas City, Mo.

The study will investigate water pollution problems resulting from intensive farming operations and will take about seven years to complete.

The project is designed to cover an area of 573,000 square miles, having a population of 7.5 million. It includes all or parts of Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wyoming.

The project was authorized by Congress in legislation passed this year.

Among things to be studied are farm operations such as pesticides, drain-off, flood damage, general farming and municipal pollution.

The program calls for a staff of 20 to 60 persons — sanitary engineers, chemists, biologists and technical and administrative personnel.

First Space Sneeze

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP) — "I think you have a space first—the first sneeze in space," Houston control told the tracking ship Coastal Sentry in the Atlantic Wednesday.

Frank Borman, command pilot aboard the orbiting Gemini 7 spacecraft, had just given the ship a report that was punctuated by several sneezes.

The tracking ship said there were three or four sneezes.

Earthquake Shakes Mexico City Area

MEXICO CITY (AP) — An earthquake of moderate intensity shook Mexico City early today. There were no immediate reports of damage.

Ancient Egyptians put dolls in tombs to perform menial tasks for the deceased in the "other world."

Historic Step In Community Development

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The first comprehensive planning body for the entire metropolitan St. Louis area, and reportedly the first of its kind in the country, was hailed Wednesday as a historic step in community development.

The organization, created Wednesday and called the East-West Gateway Co-ordinating Council, covers the city of St. Louis and St. Louis, Jefferson and St. Charles counties in Missouri and St. Clair, Madison and Monroe counties in Illinois.

St. Louis County supervisor Lawrence Roos, named chairman of the Council, called it "an historic step forward in metropolitan cooperation." Mayor Alvin Fields of East St. Louis, Ill., was selected vice chairman.

The articles of incorporation were signed and the by-laws approved and will be presented to the state governments of Missouri and Illinois for final approval.

Representatives from 17 governmental units and agencies in the two states comprise the council, which will try to solve problems of the area through comprehensive planning.

The Council reportedly is the first such regional planning organization formed in the nation since federal legislation was passed last summer requiring existence of such a group to qualify for federal grants for area planning.

Hails Unity Effort Shown By Council

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The non-Catholic observers who sat in the sessions of the Vatican Ecumenical Council hailed the unity efforts of the Roman Catholic gathering today but they said that it is too early to tell what the result will be.

The 99 representatives of the Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox churches went on record as a group praising the council's moves to overcome differences within Christianity.

They sent a message to the council, which ended Wednesday, declaring that "dialogue" had not been an idle word. They said thanks must be given to God for the results of the council.

Yet they sounded a note of restraint, saying: "It is too soon to try to gauge the effects of the council, but it remains true that whatever happens in one church is of common concern to all."

Observers individually echoed this restraint.

"You cannot really assess the council yet because everything depends on what's done with it back home," said Dr. Robert McAfee Brown of Stanford University. He represents the World Alliance of Reformed and Presbyterian Churches.

Dr. Brown said that what happens among Christians around the world is the postcouncil period will show "whether the council was only a pleasant dream or a real breakthrough."

One of the world's great Biblical scholars, Oscar Cullman, professor of New Testament studies at the Universities of Basel and Paris, expressed both pleasure and disappointment over the council's work. He attended as a Protestant observer.

"The event as such has exceeded the substance of our expectations," he said.

He praised the council's decree on divine revelation and its declaration on religious liberty, saying the former contains "true pearls in the discussion on the Scriptures" and the latter "should change the situation for Protestants in Catholic countries."

But Cullman expressed disappointment at "Mariology manifestations"—homage paid to the Virgin Mary—which he said were "not in tune with the ecumenical tendency." He cited the mention of Mary in one council decree as a mediator for Christ and Pope Paul's proclamation of the title "Mary Mother of the Church" at the end of the 1964 council session.

Dr. Albert C. Outler of Southern Methodist University, an observer from the World Methodist Council said that over-all the council ended with a strong progressive stamp despite the opposition of conservatives.

"The good guys won," Dr. Outler said with a smile, "but they got some bruises all the same."

With their historic assembly finished, the 2,400 council fathers began leaving Rome to return to their dioceses around the world.

'Tight Ship' Maintained By Space Twins

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP)—Gemini 7 astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. face a housekeeping problem that would make any good housewife throw up her hands in disgust.

Home for two weeks is a cramped spacecraft with a living area for two men no larger than the front seat of a foreign car. Anything loose floats aimlessly and weightless.

To make matters worse, Borman, an Air Force lieutenant colonel, and Lovell, a Navy commander, are not allowed to dispose of anything in space.

Housekeeping is a daily chore for the space twins. This means stuffing away trash or storing cameras and other experiment equipment used during a busy day circling the globe.

And from what they have told ground controllers, they seem to be running a pretty tight ship.

"It's amazing how the space-craft seems to be getting bigger and bigger," command pilot Borman said. "Either we're losing weight or we're getting used to it."

The astronauts harbor no doubt they can master the stowaway problem by using every nook and cranny in the craft. Several times before the flight they surveyed the cabin inch by inch, converting unused space into storage bins, drawers and pouches.

The Gemini 7 astronauts decided to make greater use of the footwells and an enlarged area behind the seats. Bags were added to these areas to hold dry waste.

Engineers also created a hole with a flap cover in the space-craft floor that leads to an equipment area. The crew shoves waste through the hole into a bag.

Stone Age paintings in the Spanish Pyrenees depict men hunting for honey 15,000 years ago.

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, deluged since February with more than 100,000 letters on Viet Nam policy, reads a sampling of 10 to 15 a day and answers some personally.

He sees more unsolicited mail on this subject than any other, and gives it more attention.

Even during his recuperative stay at his ranch home near here, packets of letters have been forwarded to him regularly from the White House.

In sampling Viet Nam mail, aides said today, Johnson insists on seeing critical as well as laudatory letters. And he has indicated in the past he takes a particular interest in mail from servicemen stationed in Viet Nam and their relatives back home.

When a letter especially impresses the President, he drafts per cent increase in the volume a personal reply. However, most Viet Nam mail that receives a formal response is handled back at the White House by staff members. If Johnson got too deeply involved in that job, it would take most of his time.

A professional staff of about 15 Civil Service employees opens, reads and analyzes all presidential mail. This is a growing job.

Since 1961, there has been a 400 of mail addressed to a president, or his wife, aides said. They reported the increase in the past year alone has been 25 per cent.

Most mail from servicemen is routed to the office of Paul Popple, a Johnson staff assistant. Popple's office drafts suggested replies for the President's signature and, if a letter appears to be of special interest, it is routed straight to Johnson.

In most cases, letters from close relatives of service personnel are handled by the office

Home for Christmas

Pretty Blonde Sets Mind To Live, Despite Disease

NEW YORK (AP) — When Stephanie Smith announced recently that she would be well enough to go home for Christmas, no one at the Hospital of the Rockefeller University doubted her word.

They've learned that what Stephanie wants, she usually gets.

Since 1958, the pretty, 22-year-old blonde has had her mind set on one thing — to live. And she's done just despite a rare blood disease that has carried her to the brink of death at least 10 times.

"I guess I'm just too stubborn to die," she says. "When my case was first diagnosed as fatal, I was just a 15-year-old kid and I was terrified.

"But soon the shock wore off and I said to myself: 'Stephanie, you're not going to die no matter what they say.'

"And here I am."

During those seven years, Miss Smith has been in and out of hospitals 26 times.

"Six times I was given the last rites of the Catholic Church," she recalled. "And at least a dozen other times I was put on the critical list."

Stephanie said she never once believed she would die, though she found her doctors, relatives and friends thought differently.

"There I would lie with people crying all around me and doctors and nurses tiptoeing around with long faces," she said.

"I hated that. I figured it was my life and if they wanted to cry and have long faces, let them do it on their own time."

Miss Smith currently is recovering from the effects of an emergency operation to correct an infection brought about by her condition.

She describes her ailment as "a case of being allergic to myself, a case where parts of my blood destroy the wrong things."

Medically, her illness is known as lupus erythematosus, a disease once viewed as progressively fatal. However, a spokesman at the hospital, which has done research in this field, said it is now regarded as chronic, but controllable with medication.

In the hospital, Miss Smith became interested in painting and her work won the attention of Miss Sylvania Golden of the League in Aid of Crippled Children.

Through the organization, she enrolled in the Arts Student League and recently was given a Ford Foundation grant to continue her studies.

She credits much of her determination to live to her mother—a registered nurse.

"My mother has gone through a lot," she said. "Two years ago my brother was killed when there was an explosion in our apartment building. He was 18.

"I know it's schmaltz to say this—but, any courage and determination I have, I owe to my mother and I'm going to be home with her and Dad for the Christmas holidays, you can count on that."

New Greek Party

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Premier Stephanos Stephanopoulos and 44 other members of Parliament who deserted George Papandreou during the political crisis last summer formed a new party Wednesday night.

They named their party the Liberal Democratic Center. Stephanopoulos was named leader.

All 45 belonged to Papandreou's Center Union party. King Constantine's ouster of Papandreou from the premiership last July set off the crisis. Stephanopoulos, who had been Papandreou's lieutenant, formed a government in September, and he and his followers called themselves Center Union Independents.

Right Guess On Quake Intensity

MATSUSHIRO, Japan (AP) — There was a sound much like an artillery shell exploding in the distance, then a jolt. A loose board on a fence spun around on a rusty nail and dropped to the ground.

An old peasant couple sat in their straw-thatched farm house sorting dried persimmons. The house creaked but they went on sorting.

"This one was about 3½," the old farmer said casually.

A minute later the ground shook again.

"That one was only about two," the farmer said.

Everyone in this town of 22,600 people in a fertile valley of apple orchards and rice paddies has become a fairly accurate guesser of earthquake intensities.

Since Aug. 3, the Matsushiro area has been rattled more than 58,160 times by tremors, 4,247 of which have been felt by humans. The people rate their intensities according to the Japanese scale that runs from one to seven. There is no 3½ on the scale—a three rating is regarded as weak, while four is a medium quake.

The epicenter of the quake area is an oval seven miles long by four miles wide. In the center is 600-foot Mt. Minakami.

Dr. Mineo Takehana, director of the local seismological observatory, traced the continued rattling to underground volcanic action.

He said molten earth had found a funnel from the depths but struck a hard crust about three miles below the surface.

"It is like a pot boiling and rocking the lid. The bubbles may be considered the jolts," he said.

"If the lid—the ground under Matsushiro—wins the battle, then the energy from below will eventually die out."

Major Kanejiro Nakamura, 72, said damage to buildings consists mostly of cracked walls, tiles falling off roofs, tilting pillars and disjointed sliding doors.

So far no one has been injured and no structure has collapsed.

Renew Quest For British Ground Force

LONDON (AP) — President Kenneth Kaunda of Zambia reportedly has renewed his request for British ground troops to guard the Kariba Dam but has dropped his insistence that they capture its power station in Rhodesia.

Political sources said today Kaunda indicated that he would be satisfied with a British force on the Zambezi River supplies power to Zambia's copper belt. It straddles the border between Zambia and rebel Rhodesia and is controlled jointly by both countries. Its power generating station is in Rhodesia.

Wilson has sent Royal Air Force planes and troops to Zambia but refused to provide ground troops on Kaunda's first terms.

According to some reports,

Kaunda told Wilson that without additional British military support, pressure from the more extreme members of his Cabinet will force him to accept troops from African states intent on invading Rhodesia.

The white minority government of Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith declared its independence from Britain Nov. 11 after negotiations broke down over Britain's insistence that Rhodesia's four million Africans EDITORIALSWhat? In-Town Junkyards!

Efforts to restore beauty along our highways is a commendable undertaking and with the encouragement of President and Mrs. Johnson this project will gain more impetus.

One aspect of it is to restrict billboards and junkyards along federally financed highways.

On a recent trip through seven states, our itinerary for the most part was over Interstate highways. Even as late as November the scenery was beautiful especially in the Boston mountain area below Fayetteville, Ark., and in Tennessee and Kentucky.

Looking back on these highlights of a vacation trip we can't recall that the natural beauty was entirely blighted by billboards and junkyards. Certainly there were billboards contested in some areas on the outskirts of cities and small towns but these didn't bother us too much. In fact we relied on the motel signs for directional information after deciding where we wanted to stay.

As for the shave, gum, whiskey, tobacco, garage, undertaker and other billboard advertising we couldn't have cared less about the messages because attention was primarily on keeping the automobile in the right lane. A driver may glance cautiously at a single sign but not all of them if he wants to keep alive in the motorcades moving near cities on the interstates these days.

A few signs near cities have some utility especially motel ones but a conglomeration is repugnant to tourists just as are the ugly klunker cemeteries. The latter need to be screened from public view.

Discussing this matter with a fellow Sedalian from the standpoint that preservation of natural beauty should be on a voluntary basis, he remarked it wouldn't work any more effectively than trying to get people to voluntarily stop littering up the town and country roads.

Nevertheless voluntary response is a worthwhile goal in any endeavor.

Our friend suggests we try to get something done then on the voluntary basis about automobile junkyards on private property within the city limits because a Sedalia ordinance against this practice hasn't been very effective.

Not having noticed such a community blight as in-town junkyards, we'll go on an inspection trip around Sedalia before snow flies, if it doesn't fly too soon.

The Cycle of Size

Anyone who doubts that history runs in cycles hasn't been reading the television advertisements lately.

Remember way back when the family clustered around the tiny seven-inch set, glowing like a magic eye in the dark? That was real togetherness.

But progress was rapid. The family's big new 14-inch was quickly surpassed by the huge 16-inch; then came the 19s, 21s and 23s. It seemed as if much-predicted wall-to-wall television was only around the corner.

Now, thanks to advances in electronic miniaturization, portable TVs are tinier than ever and are reportedly selling like small cars did a few years ago. (But that's another historical cycle entirely.)

What they really ought to come up with is some sort of magnifying glass to fit over the small screen. Come to think of it, they've already done it—about 15 years ago!

Washington Merry-Go-RoundLBJ Leans on McNamara for Decisions*By DRFW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — President Johnson was presiding over a cabinet meeting last summer. He asked Tony Celebreze, then Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, to discuss medical care for the elderly.

Celebreze talked earnestly for about 10 minutes. He was thorough but verbose. After he finished the President turned to his Secretary of Defense.

"What do you think about it, Bob?" he asked.

Secretary McNamara, who is not supposed to understand civilian problems, then summarized the problem of medicare in three concise sentences. He covered all that Celebreze did but did it in about 30 seconds.

This explains why Robert McNamara, a Republican and former president of one of the world's biggest corporations, has become the closest cabinet member to a Democratic President who likes to be known as a country boy from Texas. It also explains why McNamara is being considered as "Assistant President."

Lyndon Johnson consults Bob McNamara on almost everything, ranging from the Northeast power blackout to civil rights, from the question of poverty in the Appalachians to poverty in the big cities. He is competent, forthright, intelligent. I have watched every Secretary of Defense since the job was created, and by all odds, McNamara has been the best.

This, however, does not make him a wise counselor on foreign policy, and here he has pulled some tragic boobooos.

McNamara's Errors

Recently McNamara spent one day flying to Saigon, a day and a half in Saigon, and one day flying back, to give President Johnson and the nation his conclusions. It's doubtful whether even a man with McNamara's computer brain can arrive at sound conclusions so short a time. Nevertheless, he assured the American people, publicly, that "We have stopped losing the war," though previous Pentagon statements had indicated we were winning it.

Privately, McNamara found his military commanders in South Viet Nam so gloomy that they saw the war dragging on for 10, 20, even 30 years. One planning paper anticipated that fighting in Viet Nam would last until the year 2000.

The military commanders reported to McNamara that the Viet Cong had fought with a fury and fanaticism unmatched since the Japanese suicide stands in World War II. Though pounded by bombs and scorched by napalm, the Viet Cong still comes out of the jungle to engage in fierce, primitive, hand-to-hand fighting.

Under Truman we failed to win in Korea. Under Kennedy, who took the Joint Chiefs' advice in Cuba, we suffered humiliation at the Bay of Pigs. And under Lyndon Johnson we have been losing the war in Viet Nam, according to McNamara, up until last week.

"May I Make a Suggestion?"The World Today*Bleak Outlook for Peace In Viet Nam

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — How do chances for peace in Viet Nam look? Not good now. The peace conditions laid down by the two sides are opposite. So any settlement will require one side to back down, which means defeat.

The gap between the United States and Communist North

Viet Nam was made clear again this week by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

There has been speculation U.S. forces in South Viet Nam would be boosted from 165,700 to 300,000. Johnson has been criticized for the war by some groups demanding peace. Did the criticism shake him?

He showed it hadn't made a dent by saying Monday: this country will supply whatever men are needed "to help the people of South Viet Nam resist aggression." This is what he has always said.

On Tuesday Rusk, in an interview for educational television stations, said this country will support South Viet Nam until North Viet Nam leaves it alone.

By itself this statement might seem rubbery and vague. Actually it echoed what Johnson had said many months ago, thus showing a policy unchanged and unflinching while war increased in fury.

Last April 7 Johnson laid down the conditions for a settlement while saying this country was ready at any time for "unconditional discussion" about a settlement.

But before Johnson finished that talk he had clearly emphasized the vast difference between putting no conditions on discussing peace and putting tremendous conditions on any settlement the discussions led to.

These were the conditions Johnson laid down before there could be a settlement, and the promises he made:

This country has pledged itself to help South Viet Nam and it will, for "to dishonor the pledge would be an unforgivable wrong."

The South Vietnamese must be left free by the North Vietnamese to run themselves with their own independent government.

The United States "will not be defeated, will not grow tired, will not withdraw either openly or under the cloak of a meaningless agreement. We must be prepared for a long continued conflict."

If the United States abandoned South Viet Nam it would shake the confidence of other nations in this country and in the end lead to unrest, instability and "even wider war."

But the Vietnamese Communists, a few days before Johnson made his talk, stated their own conditions, which Johnson hasn't accepted, just as they have not accepted his.

One condition was that, for there to be a settlement, the United States must withdraw its forces from Viet Nam. This was a little vague on exactly when the withdrawal had to be made.

But there was nothing vague about another condition: while the South Vietnamese must settle their own internal affairs, they must do it according to a program laid down by the Communists.

For the United States to agree to that would be to admit defeat. For the Communists not to insist upon it would be to admit defeat.

Q — Is there such a thing as a carrier of a venereal disease? If a man had gotten such a disease from a woman wouldn't she know she had this disease?

A — If by "carrier" you mean a person who has a venereal disease in the contagious stage but does not know there is anything amiss, the answer is yes. Women are much more likely to have infectious syphilis or gonorrhea without symptoms than are men. In case of doubt it is best to have a blood test.

Q — I have been having severe pains that run from my nose over my eye, down my neck and out to my shoulder. My doctor says I have Sluder's headache but so far as I'm concerned he can have it back. What causes these headaches?

A — Sluder's neuralgia is a type of facial neuralgia that is caused by chronic infection in the nasal sinuses. As with other forms of neuralgia, drugs taken by mouth give very little relief. Injecting the nerve root with hot water or alcohol should help you. If the effect wears off too quickly a more permanent type of relief can be obtained by having the nerve root cut across completely.

Next Year's Farm Crop Controls Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government officials said today declining farm surpluses and increasing concern over hunger abroad do not as yet dictate any relaxation in farm crop controls already set up for 1966.

Undersecretary of Agriculture John A. Schnittker said in reply to queries his agency is keeping abreast of the food situation abroad as well as at home but sees no reason to ease controls designed to hold down production.

Such crops as cotton, rice, peanuts, and tobacco are grown under mandatory controls imposing penalties and loss of cash benefits on overproducers. Wheat and livestock feed grains—major raw materials for much of the nation's food supply—are produced under controls described by the department as voluntary. Only those farmers who hold down plantings are eligible for government price supports and supplementary government payments.

Schnittker said that while stocks of wheat, feed grain and dairy products are down somewhat from previous peaks, they still are ample to meet prospective demands until 1966 harvests.

The reserve and surplus of wheat, which reached a record high of 1,411,000,000 bushels in 1961, has been reduced under stabilization programs to a predicted 700 to 750 million bushels by the end of the current crop marketing year next July 1. By comparison, the annual American need for food, feed, industrial products and seed totals about 615 million bushels.

Exports during this marketing year have been forecast at 750 to 850-million bushels. The total supply at the beginning of the 1965 crop year was 2,190,000,000 bushels.

The 1966 wheat program allotted growers 47.8 million acres the same as this year when a crop of 1,354,000,000 bushels was produced. The average wheat crop is 1,189,000,000 bushels.

Ozarka Bill Seen First for LBJ Action

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—The national director of economic development told the Ozarka Regional Development Association Wednesday night that it wouldn't surprise him if an Ozarka bill were the first one approved by President Johnson.

Eugene P. Foley, an assistant secretary of commerce, had been expected to outline the Ozarka program for the association. But, he told about 500 persons Wednesday night he wasn't "going to promise anything."

Representatives from 110 counties in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas and Texas attended the one-day meeting.

Ozarka was organized earlier this year, aiming for a federal aid program similar to the Apalacia program.

Association directors met in the afternoon and took under consideration 103 projects offered by various areas.

James Hamilton of Poteau, Okla., president of the association, said road improvement projects would take precedent over others.

Among projects presented were road and bridge improvements, airports, hospital, water supply, technical schools and park improvements.

Athletics Announce Parrack Appointment

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Appointment of Arthur Parrack, former general manager of the Burlington, Iowa club of the Midwest League, as assistant farm director was announced today by the Kansas City Athletics.

The 26-year-old Parrack will succeed Ray Swallow who moved up to director of the A's farm system.

A former student at the University of Missouri, Parrack began his baseball career in 1960 as general manager of the Tampa club in the Florida State League. After a year of military service he became general manager of the Burlington team. He is a native of Boonville, Mo.

Labor Group Maps Plans For 2 Years

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The AFL-CIO convened in the fanfare of its biennial meeting today, exhorting its 13 million members to work harder for organized labor's goals in Congress and at the bargaining table.

There was politics on the outside and politics on the inside as 1,000 delegates assembled in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium to map the labor federation's plans for the next two years.

Johnson administration officials lined up to woo labor's vote, which the Democrats need in 1966 to help keep their majority in Congress.

AFL-CIO President George Meany, who opens the convention at 10 a.m., says Democrats must push labor's legislative demands harder if they expect union leaders to continue shelling out money and manpower at election time.

On the inside, there was considerable background maneuvering among many of the federation's 130 presidents to fill eight seats expected to be vacated on the powerful AFL-CIO Executive Council.

The internal political fight won't come to a climax until next Tuesday when the delegates will vote on council candidates.

The expected replacement of eight council members will be the biggest change in the top echelon in the history of the AFL-CIO, holding its 10th anniversary convention, and will give the federation a more youthful look.

The eight outgoing members are all retired or ousted presidents of their unions.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and antipoverty director Sargent Shriver are slated to address the convention today and Friday.

President Johnson, recuperating in Texas from his gall bladder operation, declined an invitation to be the main speaker.

Johnson will address the convention, however, by telephone today at 2:30 p.m.

Meany's keynote speech is expected to follow his preconvention talks urging labor unions to go all out to preserve the Democratic margin in Congress, and to fight at the bargaining table for a bigger share of the wealth from the nation's record economic boom.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government has acknowledged that writers Andrei Sinyavsky and Yuli Daniel are being held for investigation. They reportedly smuggled their works to the West to have them published.

A spokesman for the Soviet committee for cultural relations with foreign countries said Wednesday the two men—both 40—are under investigation.

Confirmation of the detentions came after Soviet Nobel Prize winner Mikhail Sholokhov told a news conference in Stockholm Tuesday that Sinyavsky was awaiting trial.

SEOUL (AP)—A Korean woman was killed Wednesday during bombing practice by a U.S. Air Force jet fighter 30 miles southwest of Seoul, a U.S. military spokesman said today.

Mrs. Lee Yong-ga, 33, was killed apparently by a non-explosive bomb dropped on an island where she was working in an oyster bed, the spokesman said. The woman ignored warning flags and was not detected by guards as she entered the restricted target area, he added.

Air Force officials are investigating the incident.

BONN (AP)—West Germany's Bundestag, the important house of Parliament, elected a woman today as one of its vice presidents for the first time.

She is Dr. Maria Probst, 63. She is a member of the Christian Social Union, the Bavarian wing of the dominant Christian Democratic party.

Facts, Figures On Youth Health

WASHINGTON (AP)—Tests show today's youngsters are faster, stronger and more agile than their older brothers and sisters were just seven years ago.

Today's average 12-year-old boy, for instance, can run the 50-yard dash 2-10ths of a second faster, throw a softball 10 feet farther, broad jump 5 inches farther and do 19 more sit-ups.

Warrensburg Sneaks Past Emporia In Season Opener

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Warrensburg State hung on for a 62-61 victory over Emporia State Wednesday night, and its opening victory of the season was one of the few Missouri triumphs in the early season basketball warfare along the Kansas-Missouri border.

Washburn got its first victory of the season, after three losses on the road, by beating Peru State of Nebraska 97-87 at Topeka.

Kansas Wesleyan beat Bethel 76-67 at Salina in its opening game of the Kansas Conference race.

Rockhurst invaded Quincy, Ill., and was vanquished 95-89.

Only two games are scheduled for tonight — with Southwestern and College of Emporia completing the first round of play in the Kansas Conference at Emporia and Cape Girardeau State playing host to Arkansas State.

The tempo picks up Friday. Sterling will be at Baker and McPherson at Kansas Wesleyan in the Kansas Conference, and the other Kansas teams on the schedule are St. Benedict's at Peru State, Washburn at Yank-

U. S. Army Explains Joe's 4-F

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army says it classified Joe Namath, the New York Jets' $400,000 bonus quarterback, 4-F because it can't provide standby medical service for his football knee.

"It may seem illogical that an individual who is physically active in civilian athletics should be found unfit for military service," noted a fact-sheet quietly circulated to congressmen.

But it said:

"When playing professional football, it must be presumed that Mr. Namath does so with the counsel and preparation of doctors and trainers. He is closely watched and professional assistance is close at hand at every game and practice session."

"In the military service, these conditions would not necessarily be present. In Viet Nam, for example, the life and safety of his comrades could depend on Namath performing his duties under extremely adverse conditions."

The Army circulated the report on Namath's classification by a New York draft board in an apparent attempt to head off any congressional protests. It is labeled for "anticipated public reaction."

Namath was examined by a team of Army doctors, including orthopedic specialists. The former Alabama quarterback injured his right knee before last New Year's Day Orange Bowl football game and it was operated on for removal of a torn cartilage.

These doctors reported "there was no question that the knee condition made Mr. Namath unfit for military service."

Because of Namath's prominence, the case was reviewed by the surgeon general.

Wichita Handcuffs Star; Wins 100-94

By LEO MARKS

Associated Press Writer

Wichita accomplished what it intended Wednesday night. The Wheatshockers held Michigan's Cazzie Russell to 21 points and upset the unbeaten Wolverines, 100-94.

And they did it without their defensive standout, Kelly Pete, who sat out the game at Wichita with a bruised thigh.

To replace him, Coach Gary Thompson assigned as many as three men on the 6-foot-5 Russell, who made All America last year as a sophomore.

It was Russell's last second jump shot from 35 feet out that won an 87-85 cliffhanger for Michigan from Wichita last season at Detroit. The Shockers were knocked out of No. 1 by that loss, and never regained top ranking.

Michigan found its position reversed in this return match. It came into the game ranked No. 2 with a 3-0 record on a scoring average of 95.3 points per game. Wichita now is 2-0, and unranked.

Russell had been averaging 24.3 points a game, and Coach Thompson predicted that if the Shockers could hold him to 20 points they had a chance.

John Clawson tried to take up the slack for Michigan as he scored 28 points, but the Wheatshockers' Jamie Thompson also got 28, scoring every time he attempted a shot.

Wichita hit 64 per cent from the field and 77 per cent at the free throw line. Michigan managed 57 and 74 per cent.

In other Missouri Valley games Wednesday night, undefeated DePaul won its third straight at Louisville's expense, 87-62, and St. Louis whipped Peppermint 101-71.

Louisville suffered its first loss in three games as DePaul held the Cardinals' sensational sophomore, Wesley Unseld, to 14 points.

The Billikens outclassed Pepperdine for their third victory without a setback, with 7-foot Rich Niemann controlling the

Parker Ties NL Record For 1st Basemen

CINCINNATI (AP) — Wes Parker of the pennant-winning Los Angeles Dodgers tied a National League record for first basemen last season by compiling a .997 average, the official fielding averages released today disclosed.

Parker's mark equaled the one set by Walter Holke of the Boston Braves in 1921. The major league record is .999, established by John (Stuffy) McInnis of the Boston Red Sox, also in 1921.

Parker made only five errors in 1,534 chances. Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, Ed Kranepool of New York and Bill White of St. Louis, the latter recently traded to Philadelphia, were the runners-up among the first basemen. Each fielded .992.

Larry Jackson of the Chicago Cubs topped the pitchers for the second straight year and for the third time in his career, handing 76 chances flawlessly in 1965.

Cincinnati had the highest club fielding average, .981. St. Louis and Los Angeles were next with .979 each followed by Milwaukee with .978.

Rockhurst lost to Quincy despite a record-tying 42 points by Pat Caldwell. The Hawks from Kansas City were as much as 19 points behind but pulled even at 89-89 with 1:26 to go. Quincy's Dewey Kalmer sank four free throws and Mike Matthews sank a basket in the final flurry.

Caldwell, who is 6-6, moved up to a career point total of 1,707—highest ever by a Rockhurst player.

Kansas Wesleyan dominated the backboards and had a slight advantage in height, but it was four minutes into the second half before the Coyotes moved decisively ahead of Bethel. Jack Stoller had 18 points for Wesleyan, but Ken Koehn's 19 points for Bethel was high for the game.

Wesleyan, Friends, Ottawa and McPherson won their initial games in the Kansas Conference. Baker is 1-1, Bethany and Bethel 0-1 and Sterling 0-2.

Astronauts Have Say In Bidding

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer The bidding for Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis has now gone into orbit.

The price hasn't gone up but the news has — astronauts Frank Borman and James Lovell Jr. being read the latest developments on the battle between the National and American football leagues for Nobis' services as they zoomed around the world Wednesday in their Gemini 7 capsule.

Borman, whose sons, Frederick, 14, and Edwin, 12, are ball boys for the AFL's Houston Oilers, was informed as the capsule flew over Houston during its 59th orbit that Nobis might sign with the Oilers.

"Oh good," said Borman, "I thought he was going to Atlanta. I hope he comes here."

Nobis, meanwhile, was on a handball court in Austin, Tex., remaining noncommittal about whether he would join the Oilers or the Atlanta Falcons, who made him their No. 1 choice in the National Football League draft.

Nobis had indicated earlier in the week that he would reach a decision Wednesday or Thursday. However, a spokesman, who asked not to be quoted by name, said:

"There is no real deadline about it, nothing magic about tomorrow (Thursday). But I know Tommy and the two teams would like to have it over with."

The AFL's Buffalo Bills, meanwhile, were the only team in either league to sign a draft choice Wednesday, although a host of free agents were grabbed.

The Bills signed their No. 17 selection, Bowling Green tackle Bill Earhart, and told how they had wood another Bowling Green tackle, Tony Fire, while he sat in the office of owner Art Modell of the NFL's Cleveland Browns.

Picked on the 11th round by Cleveland but passed in the AFL draft, Fire was in Cleveland Saturday to confer with the Browns while Bills' vice president Bob Lustig was in Bowling Green to sign Earhart.

"I was sitting in the office of Bob Gibson, the Bowling Green coach, when Fire called to ask for advice in his negotiations with the Browns," Lustig said. While Gibson was talking with Fire, Lustig handed the coach a note which said:

"Tell him not to sign anything until he talks to the Bills."

Gibson relayed the message. Fire listened and later agreed to terms with Buffalo.

Top Teams Set For Sunflower

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Four teams — expected to be cage powers this season — meet Friday in the first half of the ninth annual Sunflower Doubleheader Basketball Classic at Lawrence.

Kansas State looking for its first victory after two setbacks, plays St. John's (2-0) in the opening game. Seventh-ranked Kansas (3-0) meets Maryland (2-1) in the second contest.

The two Kansas teams switch opponents Saturday night when they move to K-State's home court at Manhattan.

If veterans are the key to a club's strength, three of the teams should enjoy successful seasons. Kansas has all of last year's starters back, including 6-foot-11 Walt Wesley.

Maryland returned 10 lettermen, including the Terps' top seven scorers, and St. John's has a solid nucleus of three returning starters off of last year's club that won the NIT.

Kansas State is the only club depending on sophomores. But one of the youngsters is Nick Pino, a 7-1, 270-pound center.

Kansas and Maryland aren't exactly strangers. KU edged the Terps last year 63-61 in overtime on Maryland's court.

Coach Ted Owens says "Maryland will be the best team we've faced so far this year."

While K-State is the underdog in the Classic, the Wildcats have a Sunflower twinbill record of 12 wins, four losses. Kansas is 8 and 8.

In their last outings, St. John's crushed George Washington 100-62; Kansas mauled New Mexico State 102-51; Maryland knocked off North Carolina State 59-48, and Tulsa upended Kansas State 70-63.

All four schools hope to finish up their season on Maryland's court. That's where the NCAA tournament winds up.

Stratton Gets AP Vote For Honors

NEW YORK (AP) — Mike Stratton, the Buffalo linebacker who made the big play for the Bills in the 1964 title game, has been named by The Associated Press as the Defensive Player of the Week in the American Football League for his work against Houston.

Stratton blocked a 31-yard field goal attempt by George Blanda in the second period of a 29-18 Buffalo victory, helped put a strong rush on Blanda and Don Trull and made several crushing tackles.

With Buffalo already assured of a berth in the championship game and San Diego only a whisper away, the stage is set for another collision of Stratton with the Chargers and Keith Lincoln in the Dec. 26 game. When Stratton put Lincoln out of action last December it was called the tackle heard around the world.

Simple Plan For Defeat of Manny Gonzalez Friday

NEW YORK (AP) — Welterweight champion Emile Griffith has a simple plan to beat challenger Manny Gonzalez in their 15-round title fight at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

"I'm going to keep after him and make him fight," the 26-year-old champion said today. "He likes to stick and move. He doesn't make any kind of a fight. If he makes any kind of a fight, he'll fall."

"This time I'm going to make sure of winning. I can't take any chances."

Griffith was referring to his split-decision defeat in a non-title 10-rounder with Gonzalez in Houston, Tex., last Jan. 26.

Despite the upset and Manny's 13-fight victory streak, Broadway bookies have made Griffith a 4-5 choice to square accounts with the 26-year-old sometime cotton-picker from Odessa, Tex. Gonzalez has a 37-16-2 record and is undefeated as a welterweight. Griffith's record is 47-7.

No Kelly Testimony For Jury

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — A prosecution witness refused to testify today on the grounds of possible self incrimination in the murder trial of three white men charged with the slaying of a Boston minister last March.

This development was followed by a prosecution appeal for a recess in order to locate still another witness, described as an eyewitness to the street attack that left the Rev. James J. Reeb fatally injured.

Judge L.S. Moore ordered a recess after the assistant district attorney, Virgil M. Ashworth, said he was trying to determine if the missing witness was on his way to Selma from Greenville, Miss.

Ashworth said the witness, Billy Dowd Edwards, a former Selma tractor company employee, was essential to his case in the prosecution of brothers Namon O'Neal Hoggle, 31, and William Stanley Hoggle, 37, and Elmer L. Cook, 42.

Ashworth called R.B. Kelly, 30, as the first witness in the third day of the trial. As expected, Kelly — initially charged with Reeb's murder and now under federal conspiracy charges — invoked his constitutional immunity against self-incrimination.

Kelly, together with the three defendants, is under federal charges of civil rights violation in connection with the March 9 clubbing of Reeb and an attack on two companions of the Unitarian minister.

Reeb was in Alabama to participate in civil rights activities.

Earlier, District Attorney Blanchard McLeod, the chief prosecutor, had said the state would rest its case if Kelly refused to testify.

Kelly is a television repairman who reportedly had told police he was near the scene of the attack on Reeb.

Kelly was not indicted by the

Refuses To Endorse DeGaulle, Opponent

PARIS (AP) — Jean Lecanuet, the centrist candidate who finished third in the first round of the French presidential election, refused today to endorse either President Charles de Gaulle or Francois Mitterrand for the Dec. 19 run-off election.

Instead Lecanuet asked his followers to make their choice on the basis of a united Europe, which he termed a "vital objective."

Lecanuet said he could not endorse De Gaulle because of his opposition to a united Europe. He said he could not back Mitterrand, although he endorses the idea of European union, because his chief support comes from the Communists, along with the Socialists.

Mitterrand placed second behind De Gaulle in the first round Sunday. He got 31.71 per cent of the vote and De Gaulle 44.63. Lecanuet, backed by the center parties, had just under 16 per cent.

Three other contestants divided the remainder.

See Higher Price For Ham, Bacon

CHICAGO (AP) — Housewives will soon be paying higher prices for bacon and ham.

Retailers say that a substantial rise in prices is certain within the next few weeks. The price increase may be the highest, they said, since 1948. Wednesday hog prices hit a peak $30.75 per 100 pounds at the Chicago market, the highest since the summer of 1948.

The spiraling prices can be explained: Farmers are not producing as many hogs as they used to, and when the supply is tight, prices go up.

state grand jury which brought first degree murder charges against Cook and the Hoggle brothers.

The state earlier had lost a key witness who was declared mentally incompetent.

Speed Aid To India In Food Crisis

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson ordered a $50-million loan for Indian purchases of fertilizer.

Johnson decided upon the aid measures after conferences with Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, who was an overnight guest at the LBJ Ranch 15 miles west of here.

The decisions were announced at White House press headquarters in Austin by press secretary Bill D. Moyers.

Bill D. Moyers.
Moyers said the $50-million loan for purchases of fertilizer for India's spring rice crop would be matched by the Indian government and $100-million worth of fertilizer would be bought.

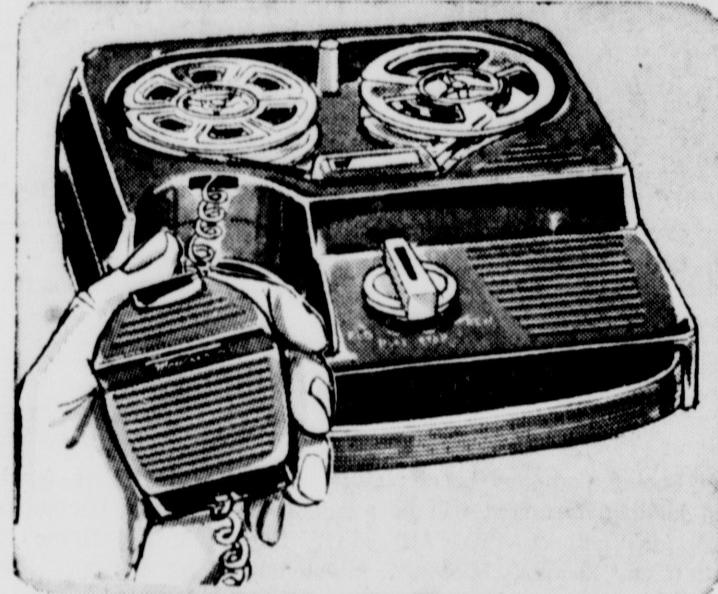

Had Johnson not acted, the earmarking additional wheat

1½-million tons of wheat would have been shipped to India over period.

Moyers said Indian Food Minister Chidambaram Subramanian would visit the United States shortly to discuss further American efforts to meet the food emergency.

At Lunch Hour

School Prayer Argument Rears Head In Virginia

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — The pupils at Woodson High School, Fairfax County, Virginia, eat lunch in shifts.

Before they do, a student volunteer sounds a gong. The pupils then recite — if they wish — the following prayer that is posted on the cafeteria wall:

"Come Lord God be our guest
"Let these Thy gifts to us be blessed
"For health and strength and daily food

"We praise Thy name O Lord amen."

The prayer was written by pupils. While it is being said, silently or aloud, pupils may chat with one another or go on eating.

That is the situation in a burgeoning suburb of Washington more than two years after the Supreme Court barred as unconstitutional required devotional use of the Bible and the Lord's Prayer in public schools.

It is a typical one, The Associated Press found in a nationwide survey.

In state after state, in county after county, Fairfax included, officials followed the ruling with one of their own barring required religious exercises. But voluntary prayer, grace or meditation often was left to the discretion of principals, teachers and pupils.

In some public schools prayers simply are not being said or the Bible read except in literature courses. In others they are.

Whether they are or are not often depends on how narrowly or broadly the court's June 1963 decision and earlier ones are read.

Grounding its ruling in the prohibition the 1st Amendment to the U.S. Constitution put on "establishment of religion," the court specifically struck down in 1963 Baltimore and Pennsylvania provisions that the Bible be read at the opening of the school day.

Where the ruling is being interpreted narrowly, attention is focused on the fact that required religious exercises were banned. A broad interpretation of this and other Supreme Court decisions has led, elsewhere, to a flat ban on any religious exercise, whether voluntary or not.

Now the court has been asked to clarify its position.

Until Principal Elihu Oshinsky ordered a halt in October 1962, morning session kindergarten children at New York City Public School 184 recited before eating cookies and milk: "God is great. God is good, and we thank Him for our food, amen!"

Afternoon session kindergarten children had been reciting fact, such "voluntary" prayers cannot be voluntary" because "the school must play the moving role in the selection of any such prayer" and because the school is responsible for the program of the school day.

The U.S. Circuit Court in New York City upheld Oshinsky. The Supreme Court hasn't said if it will hear the case.

Fifteen parents, members of five different faiths, have asked the court to rule the nondenominational and nonsectarian prayer constitutional.

They base their argument on the same 1st Amendment, specifically the prohibition it puts on interfering with the "free exercise" of religion.

By banning the nursery-type prayer, the parents claim, the state is intruding into the field of religion and destroying a parent's right "to have the child feel that God is with him the whole day long."

New York State, which backed the principal, raises the argument that "as a matter of fact, such 'voluntary' prayers cannot be voluntary" because "the school must play the moving role in the selection of any such prayer" and because the school is responsible for the program of the school day.

In Massachusetts, the public schools voluntarily ceased prayer and Bible readings. There was one exception, North Brookfield.

In May 1964, the State Supreme Court ordered the school committee to discontinue the daily prayers and Bible readings that had been conducted in classrooms with teachers leading.

In Congress, much of the steam has gone out of what once was a hot issue.

In 1964, about 150 bills were introduced on the subject. This year 58 were introduced in the House and only one in the Senate.

No hearings were held this year on prayer bills by either the Senate or House Judiciary Committee and none was sent to the floor.

However, Rep. Joel T. Broyhill, R-Va., and Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., intend to press their proposed constitutional amendments when Congress returns next month.

The school committee has vowed to fight the Supreme Court decision and School Supt. Martin D. Leach says the townspeople back the committee.

The Lansing, Mich., school system has dropped the practice of opening each school day with prayer. But Deputy Supt. Stephen A. Partington says volun-

Against Dating Of Jews, Non-Jews

LONG BRACH, N.J. (AP) — The Rabbinical Council of New Jersey has issued a pronouncement against dating between Jews and non-Jews.

"The road that ultimately leads to intermarriage begins with interdating. Jewish parents cannot abandon their responsibility in this matter," the council, representing Orthodox rabbis in the state, said.

Mrs. W. Winebrenner Honored for Birthday

Mrs. William Winebrenner, Clarkburg, was honored Nov. 28 at dinner at her home, for her birthday, which was the following day.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Page, Clarkburg, and their nieces, Lori and Micki Winebrenner; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Keller and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Winebrenner, California; Mr. and Mrs. Danny Kusyen, Kansas City.

tary prayers are allowed on occasion.

"It is not the state's business to be involved in religious exercises," he says.

"We're trying hard not to tie things so tight that people can't react normally and naturally. We don't want people to feel they live in a country of which God is not a part."

New York State has issued an official policy against prayers and Bible reading in the schools. But in Harrison, Westchester County, the Board of Education provides a 30-second period of contemplation and meditation after the pledge of allegiance.

In Nevada, Asst. Supt. of Schools R. H. Manning says he knows of no cases of prayers being said or of Bible reading.

"The Supreme Court decision caused no ripple here because it simply was not being done," he said.

In Congress, much of the steam has gone out of what once was a hot issue.

In 1964, about 150 bills were introduced on the subject. This year 58 were introduced in the House and only one in the Senate.

Thomas In First Special Of Season

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Danny Thomas in his first NBC special of the season, returned to the scene of his happiest show of last year — a sweet, innocent, nostalgic place he insists was "The Wonderful World of Burlesque."

Unfortunately, even Thomas and his smart production team can't win them all. In Thomas' world of burlesque, the girls were all discretely clothed and the emphasis was on comedy, music and even an occasional operatic aria. But there wasn't much material to produce laughter.

Lucille Ball undoubtedly enjoyed slinking around in a leopard skin muu-muu as the native temptress in a spoof of "White Cargo," but was completely wasted even when she was somersaulting around the roof of the theater on wires.

Jerry Lewis wore a pair of false buck teeth in two pretty of long shots in a sinister Brooklyn accent, turned performer again—twice.

First he appeared as a comedy candy butcher in Danny Thomas' special, slipping in a neat commercial. Then, he turned up with a big part in the next show, his "I Spy," playing a villain of the deepest dye. He dropped the Brooklyn accent and was busily dealing in stolen goods including microfilm of top secrets and threatening the good guys with very large revolvers.

Make Life Simple For Delegates

UNITED NATIONS — Seated behind a long table in the U.N.'s bustling main lounge, three women with keen memories and a command of a dozen languages make life a little simpler for delegates from 117 nations.

From 9:30 a.m. each weekday until the last debate ends, some times past midnight, the three take in a ceaseless flow of phone calls from capitals around the world. By interphone they page the delegates wanted in longues ranging from Spanish to Swahili.

U.N. headquarters lacks space to provide separate quarters for each member. The big lounge overlooking New York's East River serves as a combination of office and club for the delegates while they are in the building.

Russian-born Nina Tessier, Maria Glass of Poland and Madame Denes, a native of France, are listed as delegates.

Their vague title fits their role as language experts for a dozen delegations.

Calls come in at the rate of one every seven seconds during the midday peak. Relaying them is only part of the job.

and dispensed the ambassador with a maternal pat.

"Sometimes I feel like a mother hen with a lot of chicks," she says.

Mrs. Tessier, a svelte brUNETTE who was born a Georgian princess and is now a Canadian citizen, has served as an aide for 17 years. Her daughter, Thamar, is training officer for U.N. girl guides.

Recently one veteran envoy walked over to Mrs. Tessier holding out a swollen finger.

"Nina, I have a splinter," he complained.

"Then you should go to the clinic and have it removed," she replied.

"Nina, I want you to take it out."

Disinfecting a needle with cigarette, Mrs. Tessier tweaked out the splinter, applied a bandage home. Enclosed was a note: "Nina Nikolova," it said. "I cannot think of anything that will build up the blood of your daughter as much as the wine of your mother country."

In times of stress, the communications lines between the outside world sometimes get crossed.

When the Korean crisis broke in 1950, the Security Council suspended an emergency session. Delegates could get in touch with their governments. The envoys of China and India, who had booked calls to Taipei and New Delhi, raced to the booths assigned them when contact was announced.

"They picked up their phones and began rapping out their reports," recalled an aide, "only

DETROIT (AP) — Newspaper publisher R. J. O'Neil of St. Joseph, Mo., News-Press & Gazette said Wednesday that the Federal Reserve Board's order increasing the bank discount rate from 4 to 4.5 percent could be a restraint against inflation.

Bradley said, "This is the time for restraint. This may take a little of the bloom off."

Bradley and other newspaper executives were polled informally on their reaction to the Reserve Board's action.

The executive attended the annual Detroit automotive meetings of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

ELLSWORTH, Maine (AP) — Steven Herrick of Portland was elected foreman of Superior Court grand jury — a post his paternal grandfather, also named Steven, held on the first grand jury the town had in 1837.

He likes being a mezzo.

"Mezzos get along with each other better than other sopranos," she said. "We're kind of a clique. Mezzos are more stable and sure of themselves, perhaps because the competitive field is smaller."

Rosalind Only One of Few Top US Mezzo-Sopranos

DETROIT (AP) — An opera star is a rare bird. Rosalind is fond of Middle Eastern cooking and can whip up a dish of stuffed grape leaves as easily as she can belt out the title role of "Carmen."

"One of my goals is to be a legend in the theater," she said. "I will be a child I wanted to look like Hedy Lamarr and be able to act like Betty Davis," she said.

"It thought it would be easy to go from opera into the theater. It hasn't turned out that way. Most people still don't realize that opera stars today must be good actors, too. They think of them only as voices."

Ministers Point Out An Attacker

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Two ministers identified a heavy-set white man yesterday as one of men who took part in a street attack that left the Rev. James J. Reeb of Boston fatally injured last March.

Both witnesses, companions of the slain clergyman, pointed out Elmer L. Cook, 42, manager of a novelty company and one of three white men on trial in the slaying of Reeb.

The clergymen were in Alabama to participate in a civil rights campaign.

"He was in the lead of the group," said the Rev. Orloff Miller of Boston, identifying Cook. Miller was the second prosecution witness in the trial of Cook and two brothers, William Stanley Hoggle, 37, a salesman, and Namon O'Neal Hoggle, 31, an automobile mechanic.

A few minutes earlier, the Rev. Clark Olsen, of Berkeley, Calif., had testified he was positive that he was attacked by Cook the night of March 9 when Reeb was clubbed. Reeb died two days later of multiple skull fractures and a blood clot on the brain.

"Is there any doubt — any doubt whatsoever — in your mind that Elmer Cook was the man who attacked you?" Olsen was asked.

"No there is not," Olsen said. "he was positive after seeing Cook in person."

He was asked if Cook was the man who swung the club and felled Reeb.

"In my judgment, he was not," Olsen said.

Neither Miller nor Olsen could positively identify the Hoggle brothers as participants in the attack.

Miller said he did not see who struck Reeb, nor did he see Olsen attacked. But he said he saw Cook lead four or five men across the street toward the Hoggles. He said they resembled the assailants.

Small Supply Of Most Meats Seen In Market

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Shoppers will find smaller supplies of most meats and a more limited selection of seasonal produce in the markets this weekend.

Hog prices this week reached their highest prices in 17 years, and some fresh pork cuts and cured hams and bacon jumped 1 to 7 cents a pound.

Egg prices are up, as they usually are when holiday cooking increases demand. This time, the supplies already were short.

The National Canners Association indicated prices may be climbing on canned food.

Labor problems, bad weather and idle bees cut the sweet corn, cling peach, lima bean, California white asparagus, salmon, pear, tomato, sliced beet, carrot and fruit cocktail supplies.

Now there is concern that the bee population of California, important in pollination of pears, among other things, might be cut by a bee blight.

Rains idled the busy bees during the pollinating season this year.

No Medicare Part For Most Doctors

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A former president of the American Medical Association says about 90 per cent of doctors in America will refuse to take part in medicare.

Dr. Edward R. Annis of Miami, Fla., predicted a "colossal foulup between patients and the federal government" under the program. He told newsmen this would come when patients go to the government for reimbursement under the program.

Exchange Student TalksChristmas In Rhodesia
Topic for AAUW Meeting

At the time when Rhodesia has declared its independence, Sedalia has as its American Field Service Student, a young girl from Rhodesia, Elizabeth Mackey, who was the speaker at the Christmas dinner meeting of the American Association of University Women, held Monday evening, Dec. 6, at Flat Creek Inn.

The daughter of English parents, Libby, as she is called, reminded the Americans that their country, too, in 1776, had declared their independence from England, and that all countries want that independence.

Looking at the thing that Rhodesia has done, she continued, from the outside, it may seem as though this is not good, and so Rhodesia has lost all its friends except South Africa and Portugal, she said. But knowing the situation from the inside, she said, it was something they had to do.

Rhodesia, she explained is a country, only 70 years old, and although it has been under British domination, for 40 years has successfully governed itself.

Libby smiled at the comment of her young brother her mother had written about: "Rhodesia is on top on the news hit parade."

There is a reason, Libby said, for Rhodesia declaring her independence. First, was holding money back by investors they did not want to invest in a country that was teetering between independence and the rule of another government. Second, there was a need for internal harmony and this country was capable of standing on its own. Third she had waited for Britain to take action that Rhodesia may rule its country entirely, and fourth, there was national pride.

"You are a minority ruling a majority," other countries have said, because the white people are far in the minority, Libby told the group, but this is not true. According to the constitution anybody can vote, but it depends on the education and the wealth. Many of the white people had these qualifications but there are black ones who have it, too, and are in the government.

The independence, she said, is to lay the pathway for the old, that all my vote regardless of qualifications. It has not been something between black and white, it has been between those who have and those who have not. It is to give opportunity to all.

"My support" Libby stressed, "is with the government. Our intentions are to make preparations for a country not for black people, not for white people, but for all Rhodesians. I am telling you about my country," she said, "and I will take back with me things I have learned in your country, for your country has problems, too."

Libby started her talk, however, by saying "I think of your land as happy."

She quoted the American Field Service motto: "Walk together, talk together, oh, ye people of
